SEARCHING FOR THE RAINBOW

Early Sunday morning I was standing in for a brother, in the preparing of Communion emblems for services. Kind of rushing through what I was doing, I tried to carry too much in one load from the closet in the back, to the Kitchen counter. As it turns out, when the grape juice slips out of your arms and hits the floor...the lid CAN pop off... and juice WILL plop out all over the floor That’s the time where one has too REALLY search for the blessing, which was ... it was on the tile floor---Rainbow!

Dear Church,
I wanted to thank you all for the prayers on my behalf, Monday will be two weeks since my surgery and I can’t thank you enough for the prayers, I appreciate each and every one. While I was waiting to be taken back the nurse kept asking me if I was nervous and how could I be so chilled, I told her I was covered in prayer. Prayer is so powerful and God is good! We have got to come to a couple of your services and enjoyed each of them, you are such a warm and inviting congregation. I’m si thankful that CJ, Hailey, and the girls are going there they just love it and all of you. I will keep your church in my prayers as well as you spread the gospel to further His kingdom. Thank you again for the prayers, In Christian love
