The Need For Additional Leadership

Here at One Hope, we are in an interesting position right now.

On one hand we have had several of our Deacons resign or move , and, in addition, our current three Elders have been serving in their role for several years. Fact is, we need additional help in both areas.

On the other hand, God has been blessing us by sending many qualified and skilled men and women to fill our spots. Maybe they have been sent for a time such as this.

It’s time we aid those spots with oversight and move on down the road toward accomplishing the Vision God has for this congregation.

Beginning after our current Series (I’m Glad You Asked), we will begin a new series simply entitled “Church Leadership”. We will be looking at Biblical examples of both Elders and Deacons. After we have completed our study, we will be starting the process of adding additional Leadership. This will likely be during the months of November-December.

There are two things we need from every member:

1. Be in prayer about this process. Pray for the hearts of the men who will be asked to serve in these roles. Pray for the timing in their lives. And that we appoint the men God desires.
2. If you are one of those who have been leading and serving, maybe this is the God selected time for you to step up and accept this challenge of Church Leadership.

What an exciting time in the life of our congregation. Be in constant prayer as we go through this process as a church.

Dear One Hope Family,
Well, I sure do love coming to see you folks! Every time I walk through your doors, I am reminded of just how special the family at One Hope Church of Christ really is. Of all the churches I get to visit, yours must be one of the warmest and most welcoming.
One of my favorite moments this morning was watching the little children of your congregation going around and gathering funds to help other children. Your song service was beautiful. Jared, thanks for leasing us in a wonderfully gifted way. Those full voices ringing through the auditorium were enough to make a fellow’s heart swell. There is just something special about a congregation lifting it’s voice in praise to God. And then, at the end of service, two very young men came forward to lead the closing song. What a wonderful sight! I also loved seeing one of your older teen get up and deliver the message before the Lord’s Supper. He did a beautiful job, and his heartfelt messaged showed a maturity that would make any church proud. Those young men are growing up in a congregation that is teaching them not only how to worship, but how to serve, lead, and love others. What a blessing!
Your brother forever,
Thom
